Add-on Social Media Campaign Proposal: Ediya X Sanrio

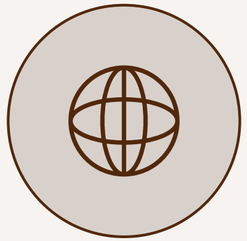

By Yubeen Choi

On-Site Consumer Insights

Insight 01
[Visual Appeal]

Consumers visit the store not just for the drink, but to capture aesthetic visual content for their social media.

Insight 02
[Collectible FOMO]

The $5 minimum spend rule effectively drove upselling (AOV growth) as customers willingly added toppings or desserts to collect the Sanrio magnets.

Insight 03
[Spatial Engagement]

Customers spent a lot of time styling and photographing products on-site, proving that Gen Z highly values interactive, photo-worthy store experiences.

01 [Short-form Content]:
The Barista's Campaign Menu & Custom Combination Guide

1. Core Concept
   - Designing a localized, relatable micro-content series for Instagram and TikTok, leveraging firsthand insight as an on-site barista.

2. Content Strategy
   - The Visual: Filming beverage preparation videos showing the exact layers of the Sanrio drinks.
     - Real Tip: Sharing genuine customization hacks to make the official menu taste even better (e.g., adding extra toppings to the default recipe).
     - Hook (On-Screen Text): "POV: Watching your favorite Sanrio character turn into a delicious Ediya drink."

3. Expected Viral Impact
   - Driving active User-Generated Content as younger demographics replicate, customize, and share their own aesthetic drink creations on social media.

Idea 02 [Spatial Marketing]:
The Ediya X Sanrio 3D Photo Zone & Community Magnet Board

1. Core Concept

- Transforming the physical store into an interactive visual landmark with a 3D pop-up display and a shared magnet board to maximize both retail upselling and organic Instagram check-ins.

2. Content Strategy

- 3D Setup: Installing a life-sized Sanrio figure at the counter for an eye-catching photo spot.
- Magnet Board: Setting up a community Magnet Board on the wall to drive interactive customer engagement.
- Upselling: Launching a carousel post for the promo: "Spend $5, get a limited magnet for $2!"
- Real Tip: Driving customers to post aesthetic stories next to the 3D figure or shared board.

3. Expected Viral Impact

- Driving immediate retail sales growth by motivating users to achieve the minimum spend for the magnets, while triggering localized FOMO on Instagram as users share interactions with the 3D figures and board.

Idea 03 [Brand Collaboration]: Ediya X Sanrio X Photo Booth Photo Frame Campaign

1. Core Concept

- Launching a limited-edition Sanrio photo frame collaboration with trendy self-photo booths to seamlessly bridge offline experiences with viral Instagram exposure.

2. Content Strategy

- The Cross-Promotion (Designing a seamless customer loop)
  - "Buy a Sanrio drink at Ediya, get a photo booth discount coupon — Take a photo, get an Ediya magnet upgrade shortcut!"
- The Design: Creating aesthetic, high-vibe social media content to preview the exclusive Ediya-themed Sanrio photo frames.

3. Expected Viral Impact

- Generating massive, unpaid User-Generated Content as users naturally share their printed photo strips on Social Media, amplifying both brand awareness and store visits.

